The Pastor's Corner

My dear Parishioners,

Though we have extended the celebration of our Diamond Jubilee over the course of an entire year, I do want to recall the fact that the actual date of the founding of St. Paul of the Cross Parish was November 14, 1954, several years before our beautiful church was built. That would follow five years later with the dedication taking place in 1960—one year after construction began. Not long ago, I was presented with a small packet of black and white photos taken by Dr. John B. Holton of the church and monastery under construction. It is a marvel that over the course of sixty years, nothing of the original buildings has changed. I hope that will soon change with the addition we will soon make to the monastery section of the building.

Though our buildings have remained basically the same over the years, other things have changed; for example, the construction of I 285, part of which unfortunately parallels Harwell Road as it skirts our front lawns and parking area. The most significant changes have occurred as succeeding generations of parishioners pass through these doors. Of course, the staff, both clerical and lay, also changes over the years.

Speaking of staff changes, please join me in welcoming our newest staff member, Patricia S. Elguera, who has assumed the responsibilities of full-time Administrative Assistant. An experienced office manager and bi-linguist, she comes to us from the Archdiocesan Chancery where she served most recently as receptionist. A native of Lima, Peru, Patricia mastered the English language and was a certified teacher of English there before coming to this country some thirteen years ago. Her presence and gifts are a significant sign of the changes taking place in the parish and throughout the Archdiocese. I hope you will soon have the opportunity to meet and welcome Patricia. — Fr. Jerome, C.P.

Jesucristo, Rey del Universo/A

Mis Hermanos, con la festividad de Jesucristo, Rey del Universo, concluimos el año Litúrgico. Esta festividad fue instituida por el Papa Pio IX en el año 1925, y luego en el año 1969 el Papa Pablo VI la traslado a este Domingo. Esta festividad nos invita a hacer una síntesis del camino recorrido en nuestra vida Cristiana, tanto a nivel personal como comunitario.

- Durante este año hemos profesado la Fe de la Iglesia cada Domingo en el Credo.
- Hemos celebrado el Ministerio Cristiano mediante los Sacramentos.
- Hemos intentado vivir la vida Cristiana en sus exigencias morales.
- Hemos hecho camino con Jesucristo, con la Iglesia, con Maria la madre del Señor, con todos los santos y con nuestros difuntos. Todo lo hemos creído, celebrado, vivido y rezado en el Señor dentro de la Comunidad Cristiana. Y hoy, celebramos que todo esto se resume en Jesús que es el Señor de la Historia.

La Palabra de Dios:

- Ezequiel, nos presenta a Dios como un pastor bondadoso, una imagen que Jesús recogerá para presentarse a si mismo como nuestro pastor.
- En la Segunda lectura, San Pablo nos presenta una magnifica reflexión sobre la intima relación que hay entre la resurrección de los cristianos. Nos presenta su vision cristológica de la historia.
- Finalmente, San Mateo, en el evangelio nos presenta la escena del Juicio Final. La última enseñanza de Jesús antes de la Pasión. Sintetiza, la Hora de la verdad.

Mis Hermanos, hagamos el esfuerzo de dedicar un momento de reflexión sobre este momento tan transcendental para nuestras vidas.

P. Alberto, cp.
